1. The Concept of Open University

The pedagogy of Open Learning places the primary responsibility of acquiring knowledge on the learner. On its part, the University facilitates a flexible learning schedule, provides a kitty of advanced support services and offers accreditation by way of examinations.

The Open University represents a parallel approach to Higher Education. It stands apart from a highly formal, institutionalized and centrally administered system of education. Its philosophy is built around the principles of universality, flexibility and innovativeness. Its ideas and institutions, its methods and procedures are all shaped accordingly. Conceptually, it can be viewed as a system drawing upon the best elements in formal and non-formal education.

The 'openness' consists of a variety of features.

First, it offers easy access to the learners. The entry requirement is not too exacting. A genuine interest in picking up knowledge is all that it expects. Consequently, it would try to embrace as many learners as possible.

Second, its territorial reach is visibly wide. It aims at bringing education to the doorstep of the learner, wherever he or she may be. Various methods of communication and contact are used for this purpose. The classroom of the University, thus, is as wide as the entire land it seeks to serve.

Third, the Open University is learner-oriented. It devises its courses and methods of teaching to suit the needs of the learners. Their options and inclinations are given due priorities. A variety of courses—short-term or long-term, liberal or professional can be pursued under the University.

Fourth, it believes in fair distribution of quality education, teaching aid, consultancy and study materials. Whatever resources the University has been made evenly available to all learners wherever or whoever he or she might be. It eliminates variations and discrimination.

Fifth, its administration is decentralized. In promoting Distance Education, the University creates a wide network of Learner Support Centres. Learners need only to come to the nearest available centre for collecting all information, completing all formalities, discussing their academic issues and appearing for evaluation of their work at intervals chosen by them.

Sixth, student assessment under Open University is based on continuous assessment and credit system. It does not require learners to get bogged down in one final examination. One can study at one's own pace.

In short, the Open University seeks to open up the treasure house of knowledge to the maximum number of users. Thereby it would enhance their skills for productivity and further learning. Socially, too, the University promises steady empowerment of those who suffered backwardness for want of these skills. Considering the current trends all over the world, the Open University is going not only to complement the conventional system of higher education but may soon occupy the centre stage also in developing countries where the resources do not measure up to the vastness of the clientele.

2. Netaji Subhas Open University: Vision and Mission

Vision:

The NSOU, the only State Open University in West Bengal, delivers to build up the quality human resource base of the State and, along with other Open Universities of the country, and moves towards the improvement of the quality of open distance education. It also intends to promote and develop appropriate ambience to develop an international standard distance education scenario in our country, keeping in view of the demands for education of the learners in tune with the requirements of the twenty-first century.

Mission:

- ☒ To propagate quality education in flexible mode all over the State and to provide access to different skills-enhancing educational programs.
- ☒ To collaborate with other Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) for academic and research endeavours.
- ☒ To provide education in the vernacular language, i.e., Bengali and making it available at low cost to the underprivileged people.
- ☒ To provide facility of Life Long education to the intending learners.
- ☒ To integrate technological tools in the pedagogy for facilitating the learning experiences.
- ☒ To contribute to the existing body of knowledge through research and extension activities.
- ☒ To render services for the development of the State in particular and the Nation in general in order to sensitize the learners towards a humanistic and democratic ecosystem.

3. Academic Programmes :

The University offers both short-term and long-term programmes leading to Post Graduate Diplomas, which are conventional as well as innovative. Most of these courses have been developed after an initial survey of the demand for such studies. They are launched with a view to fulfilling the learners' needs for:

- (a) Certification, (b) Improvement of skills, (c) Self-enrichment, (d) Continuing education and professional development at work place and e) Diversification of knowledge.

In order to provide individualized support to its learners, the University has a large number of Learner Support Centres through out the state. Teaching-learning process of this Open University is quite unique. This system is highly learner-centric, participative, collaborative and flexible in terms of time, space and age. To support such environment University facilitates its service via three important aspects viz. Personal Contact Programme; Educational Resources & Evaluation Process. It comprises:

- (i) Personal Contact Programme (PCP): Instruction will be imparted through self-instructional study materials and Personal Contact Programme. The PCP are generally held on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. The centre for PCP may not always be the Learner Support Centre where the learner has been admitted.

PCP : Ordinarily the Personal Contact Programmes (PCP) are being held by clubbing of learner support centres. Enrolled learners are requested to keep in touch with their respective study centre accordingly.

- (ii) Self Learning Study Materials (SLM) : Self learning study materials will be distributed to the learners in installments free of cost through the Learner Support Centres where they have been admitted. Besides study materials, learners will be supplied with a list of reference books for suggested reading.

- (iii) Mode of Instructions: The University makes use of several methods to provide maximum possible exposure of the learners to the course-contents and to each instructional programme. To start with, printed self-learning material packages and contact programmes involving face-to-face interaction with academic counsellors are available. Eventually Audio-materials, Audio-visual presentations, Teleconferences and occasional discussion sessions through Mobile App have been introduced for BLIS.

4. Admission Procedure

Every year NSOU conducts an online admission process for January session, through which applicants, fulfilling the minimum eligibility criteria, can opt for one BLIS & Advance Diploma course among fifteen different courses from Arts, Science and Commerce as mentioned earlier.

Before starting of the admission process NSOU circulates admission notification through leading newspaper (indicated notification), respective Learner Support Centres and in its official website (www.wbnsou.ac.in).

Applicants are advised to through the website admission notification for detailed admission procedure and guideline.

12. Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Answers of some anticipated question are given below in the form of Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs).

Where can I get an application form?

After publication of admission notification, you can access it online through our admission website (link will be available in admission notification). For further details see the admission notification.

Lost my Enrollment-cum-Identity Card, what should I do?

The applicant must register a General Missing Diary (GD) with local police station at earliest. To get a duplicate Enrollment-cum-Identity Card you should write an application addressed to the Registrar of this University along with a DD of Rs. 500/- (drawn in favour of Netaji Subhas Open University payable at Kolkata) and the original GD. The application must be forwarded by the Learner Support Centre Coordinator with office seal.

Can I choose my Learner Support Centre, or shall the university allot me the Learner Support Centre?

You can choose your Learner Support Centre as per your convenience. However, since all your programmes are not available at all the Learner Support Centres, you should ensure that the course you are applying for is available at the Learner Support Centre opted by you. Normally the Centre opted by you shall be allotted to you. However, in exceptional/unavoidable cases the University may allot a different Centre to you and in such cases the decision of the University is final.

How should I pay the course fee?

For online admission process the course fee can be paid through online (via payment gateway) and offline (through bank challan) mode. In case of offline admission and to get further details regarding payment method, please see the detail admission notification or guideline for online/offline admission process in the University website.

Can I send my application form by post, or is it required to be submitted in person?

You cannot send application form by post as there is process for verification of eligibility criteria in the admission step at your selected learner support centre.

What I am required to do after submission of my application form?

After submission of application form at learner support centre and subsequently processed at the Headquarters and if you are found eligible for admission, you will receive an Enrollment No. from your learner support centre and Enrollment-cum-Identity Card only for BLIS course as proof of your admission along with detailed information about your enrollment number, learner support centre, subject of study etc.

If I want to withdraw myself from the programme after confirmation of my admission, shall I get my fee refunded?

University may refund the fees paid during admission process following the instruction as notified by the UGC in the month of October of 2018.

How can I receive support if I have doubts while studying the materials?

We provide face-to-face contact between learners and tutors/counsellors at Learner Support Centres to clarify your doubts and answer your academic queries. This is called “Counselling” which is normally held on weekends at NSOU learner support centres.

Is it compulsory for me to attend counselling?

The counselling sessions are not compulsory for theory papers. However, it is advised to attend the session as far as possible, which in future will be immensely useful in certain respects to share your views on the subject with your counsellors and fellow learners; comprehend some of the complex ideas/concepts or difficult issue discussed in your materials, and get clarifications for many of your doubts which you will not have solved yourself.

How do I know about counselling schedule?

Your learner support centre will inform you about the counselling schedule. Normally counselling would be held on Saturday and Sunday. You should contact your learner support centre coordinator for the counselling schedule. The counselling schedule of the courses included in this prospectus may also be available on the Website.

Why should I do assignments, are the assignments compulsory?

The purpose of assignment is to help you get through the courses. Your counsellor or evaluator will write teaching type comments on your assignment responses to facilitate your learning. Assignment is a process of formative evaluation. It will help you to understand how you are progressing in your studies.

Yes, the assignments for all theory paper are compulsory. It means you need to submit the assignments per paper within the stipulated time for being eligible to appear in the term-end examination. The assignments carry 20%-30% weightage depending on the courses in the final result.

When and where should I submit the assignments?

You should submit the assignment response at your learner support centre as per the date mentioned in the assignment. It should be remembered that without Enrollment No. one cannot submit assignment.

If I cannot complete my programme in minimum duration (see Sl. No. 5.) what will be the fate of submitted assignments?

All the assignments submitted earlier will be carried forward till your registration validity period.

Can I improve my assignment grade by re-doing them?

No, you cannot improve an assignment grade in any circumstances.
